

2-04-701. Johnson O'Malley Home School Coordinator.

- A. The primary function of the Johnson O'Malley home school coordinator is to provide a well-organized, smooth functioning environment in which Native American students can take full advantage of the instructional program and available resource materials.
- B. The Johnson O'Malley home school coordinator is responsible to the building principal(s).
- C. The Johnson O'Malley home school coordinator is responsible for students designated as eligible under federal statute regulating Johnson O'Malley funding.
- D. The qualifications of this position include: a high school diploma; college training in education; demonstrated ability for work to be performed; demonstrated ability to work with Native American students; and such other alternatives to the above as the Board and Indian Education Committee may find appropriate and acceptable. This position is also offered with a preference for Native American applicants.
- E. The performance standards of the Johnson O'Malley home school coordinator include:
 - 1. Work with individual or groups of Native American students to reinforce material initially introduced by the teacher.
 - 2. Assist individual Native American children need of special social, cultural, or academic attention.
 - 3. Guide independent study, enrichment work, and remedial work set up by the teacher or building principal.
 - 4. Check notebooks to ensure that quality work is completed on a daily basis, assist testing if requested, and supervise makeup work and homework.
 - 5. Assist Native American students with drill activities, reading and storytelling, library, physical education, music, art, and other "pull out" programs concerning education.
 - 6. Participate in inservice programs when requested.
 - 7. Assist with the preparation of classroom displays as they relate to Native American culture.
 - 8. Act as a school to home liaison to promote parental interest and involve them in their children's education.
 - 9. Act as a home to school liaison in an ombudsman capacity to convey parent concerns to appropriate District personnel.
 - 10. Attend meetings of the JOM Parent Advisory Committee when requested.
 - 11. Keep in close contact with parents or guardians by phone calls or on-site visits when needed and any other duties as may be assigned by the building principal.

Adopted: April 12, 1987
Revised: December 18, 1990
May 16, 2000
November 16, 2004